Addendum to the Agenda

section I: Matters for debate and decision

9.0a Terms of Reference for an e-Learning Strategy

9.1a The Academic Committee, on the recommendation of the Learning and Teaching Committee, at its 3/2005 meeting, is asked to consider the Terms of Reference for an e-Learning Strategy, as detailed in 2006/0002261.

9.2a The Division of Information Services was reviewed during October 2005. The Report of the Panel Reviewing Griffith University Information Services Division 10-14 October 2005 (2006/0003767) made a number of recommendations including Recommendation (3) that:

Griffith build an e-Learning and Teaching Plan to underpin the University Learning and Teaching Plan by end 2006 for implementation in 2007.

9.3a It was recommended that the Terms of Reference for an e-Learning Strategy (2006/0002261) should be developed around a framework of:

1. Innovation;
2. Implementation; and
3. Sustainability.

9.4a The Terms of Reference for an e-Learning Strategy (2006/0002261) have been considered by the Pro Vice Chancellor (Information Services) and the Pro Vice Chancellor (Administration).

Recommendation:

9.5a The Academic Committee is asked to approve the Terms of Reference for an e-Learning Strategy, as detailed in 2006/0002261.
