10.0 PRESENTATION: ENHANCING ENGLISH LANGUAGE COMPETENCY OF INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

10.1 The Griffith English Language Enhancement Strategy approved at the November meeting of Academic Committee is designed to significantly enhance English language support for students, particularly, but not exclusively, for international students. Key components of the Strategy include:
- An optional 3-week pre-entry English language preparation program;
- A compulsory 10CP English language enhancement course for all Griffith international students who have not obtained an IELTS (International English Language Testing Score) greater than or equal to 7 (and no sub-score below 6.5). Those who have lived predominantly in a country in which the predominant language is English and who have completed their secondary or tertiary studies in English are exempt;
- Additional English HELP programs and English Immersion Experiences;
- Optional subsidised IELTS exit testing.

10.2 The Chair of the Sub-Committee of the English Language Working Party, Professor Sally Borbasi, will attend the meeting to provide a presentation on the implementation of the English Language Enhancement Strategy.

10.3 Professor Lorelle Frazer will provide a report on the implications of this strategy for the GBS.
ORDERING OF THE AGENDA

At this point in the agenda, members may propose that any matter on the agenda, not included in Section I, be so included.

SECTION I: MATTERS FOR DEBATE AND DECISION

11.0 QUALITY/ACCREDITATION ISSUES

11.1 Annual Program Review and Improvement Reports

A component of the University’s new On-line Program Planning, Development, Approval and Review (OPPDAR) system is the Annual Program Review and Improvement Report (APRIR). The APRIR is being trialled with a view to full implementation in June 2009 across all undergraduate and postgraduate programs, including those programs reviewed in the 2008 trial.

Trial participants were requested to forward their APRIRs, together with the completed Curriculum Review Tool - Internationalisation of the Curriculum and Curriculum Review Tool - Work Integrated Learning, to Programs Committee via the Program Management System by Friday 6 February, 2009. The Dean (Learning & Teaching) nominated the following GBS programs to participate in the 2008 trial of the APRIR:

1034/1288 Bachelor of Business
1035/1286 Bachelor of Commerce
1291/292 Bachelor of Arts (Politics, Asian Studies and International Relations)

It is intended that the approved APRIRs for the trial programs will be considered at the March meeting of Programs Committee. The Dean (Learning and Teaching) will report on progress with the APRIR trial.

12.0 FUTURE GOVERNANCE STRUCTURE OF THE GRIFFITH BUSINESS SCHOOL BOARD

12.1 The Pro Vice Chancellor (Business) will discuss changes to the governance structure of the Griffith Business School Board.

For discussion

13.0 GBS POSTGRADUATE PROGRAMS FLEXIBLE DELIVERY STRATEGY

13.1 The GBS Board is asked to consider the attached paper: GBS Postgraduate Programs Flexible Delivery Strategy. Professor Lorelle Frazer, Dean (Learning and Teaching) will speak to this item.

13.2 The paper outlines a flexible delivery strategy to be applied across individual postgraduate programs. It proposes:
- All core courses in Graduate Certificate programs (including those embedded in Masters degrees) be offered in flexible format by Semester 1 2010.
- All core courses in Masters degrees be offered in flexible format by Semester 1 2011.

For discussion

14.0 2009 FACULTY LEARNING AND TEACHING CITATIONS

14.1 The Faculty Learning and Teaching Citation (FLTC) scheme is one of a suite of programs designed to recognise and reward truly engaged teachers who are student-centred and respect students as active members of the Group’s learning community. Professor Lorelle Frazer, Dean (Learning and Teaching) will speak to this item.
14.2 Staff within the Griffith Business School are invited to apply for a FLTC in 2009. The number of citations to be awarded by the GBS Board (based on EFSTU) is 7, valued at $2,000, for professional development use as university teachers. Citations may be awarded to individual teachers, teaching teams and programs. Program refers to an activity or a suite of activities with a common purpose or a service that enhances student learning or engagement. It does not refer to a program of study.

14.3 All applications are to comprise a two-page (A4) statement of claim using the template designed for this purpose. Applicants may address only one or two of the selection criteria and the statement addressing the selection criteria should present a succinct, well-argued case referencing appropriate sources of evidence against the relevant criterion/a. Applicants are asked to provide a 100-word citation describing their distinctive contribution.

14.4 All academic staff including casual academic staff are eligible to receive a Faculty Learning and Teaching Citation. The following stipulations apply:
- Staff awarded a FLTC are eligible to apply for Griffith Awards for Excellence in Teaching (GAET) in the same year or successive years for the same contribution.
- Staff awarded a FLTC Commendation are eligible to apply for a FLTC in subsequent years for the same contribution to student learning.
- Past recipients of the Excellence in Teaching and Programs that Enhance Learning awards of the Griffith Awards for Excellence in Teaching are eligible to apply for a FLTC in subsequent years for the same contribution.
- Staff awarded a FLTC are eligible for a FLTC in subsequent years for a different, but not the same, contribution to student learning.

14.5 Applications are to be submitted electronically to the Secretary, GBS Board by 5 pm on Monday 18th May (Week 11, Semester 1). A copy of the Faculty Learning and Teaching Citation Guidelines and application template are attached.

14.6 Please contact the Secretary, GBS Board (extension 56408 or email k.rees@griffith.edu.au) for further information on the process.
