23.0 REVISED GRIFFITH GRADUATE STATEMENT

23.1 The Deputy Vice Chancellor (Academic) has forwarded advice that a revised Griffith Graduate Statement was approved by Academic Committee, to incorporate the University’s current learning and teaching priorities. Staff are encouraged to read the new policy 2.10.10 Griffith Graduate Attributes at http://www62.gu.edu.au/policylibrary.nsf/xmainsearch/63a5c8d51bb2231f4a256bb400633a52?opendocument

23.2 The DVC (Academic) advises that the development of key attributes is central to the design, delivery and assessment of student learning. Most of the previous attributes are still present, but there is also a new attribute focused on competency in culturally diverse and international environments.

23.3 The revised Griffith Graduate Statement will be implemented University-wide in semester 2, 2010. Mapping of these attributes will be included within a new electronic Course Profile System (CPS) which will indicate the links between the graduate attributes, course learning objectives, teaching and learning activities and assessment items. The new Course Profile System is being piloted on selected courses in semester 1, 2010.

23.4 The GIHE is developing teaching and curriculum resources relating to the new Graduate Attributes. There will also be a series of workshops led by INS, GIHE and the Secretariat covering both the technical and pedagogical aspects of the new Course Profile System.
